

Apostle Jeffery R. Holland's Alarming Declaration

Just a quick quote for you tonight which comes from last October 14 at a Utah Stake Conference.

Elder Jeffery R. Holland (who is well known for speaking the blatant truth with the fire of the Spirit) said this:

“ALL WILL NEVER BE THE SAME. From this time forward everything will be new. Our government may fall, our finances may fall, the nation may fall, but do not fear! The church will stand and remain strong. Those of you with wayward children, I give you my blessing to prepare.

“Your children will be returning home. There will be new revelations. From this time forward you will hear things you have never heard before, see things you have never seen before, and your leaders will ask what they have never asked before. We (apostles) will not be attending stake conferences anymore. We are called to other things now. All you know will never be the same.”
